

Stop killing my radio. I pay for this signal. The FCC is already killing y radio with the fining of Stern and others like him. Let the people decide what the people want to hear and receive. We want local traffic and news.